

The LGBTQIA+ Community & Justice June 7, 2022

FEATURED PANELIST

Jazz McKinney (they/them)

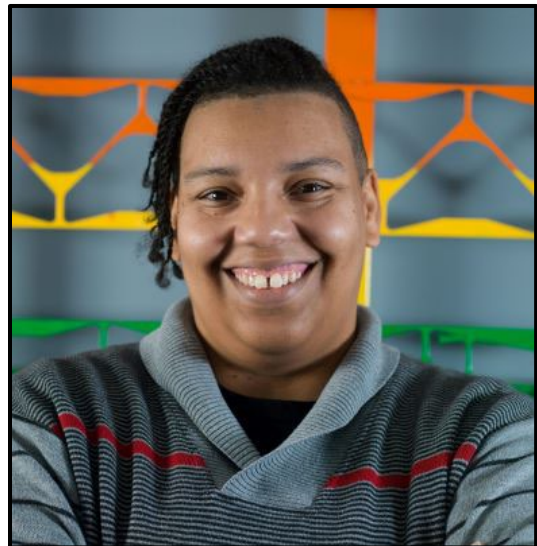

Executive Director

Grand Rapids Pride Center

Jazz is a Black, Indigenous Two-Spirit individual who, although born and raised in Detroit, has made West Michigan their homes.

Committed to highlighting the importance of education, awareness, and involvement to create change, Jazz is passionate about working to decolonize gender roles and identities as well as discussing the impact that harmful gender binaries can cause within our communities.

Jazz has been involved in the mental health field for over nine years, as well as racial justice work and advocacy/activism in the 2-SLGBTQ+ community for more than 15 years.

eliminating racism
empowering women

ywca

west central michigan